4-H Fairs Here!

SOUTHWEST--The annual Will County 4-H fair will be a five-day event this year.

Exhibits of livestock, farm and garden products, food, clothing and the skills and study developed through various projects of the 4-H program will be on display at the Fred Francis 4-H Field on Francis Rd. next week, July 22-26.

There are more than 1,400 members in the 54 4-H clubs in Will County so the entry list at the 4-H fair will be a big one.

A. A. Wicklein, senior extension adviser of agriculture; George Young, assistant adviser and Bea Bagby, extension advisor of home economics, are in charge, with the help of the staff of adult volunteers who serve as superintendents of the various exhibits and handle the details of what has become a very large undertaking.

Winners in the different sections have an opportunity to compete in that field at the state fair in Springfield so there is keen competition among the young exhibitors.

The opening day, Tuesday, will be devoted to the swine, poultry, rabbits and clothing competitions.

The next day, Wednesday, will be taken up with the dairy cattle show starting at 9 a.m.; the sheep show at noon, and a multitude of exhibits that fall under the label of "common interest," such as forestry, room and home improvement planning, electricity, entomology, geology, bird studies, water and soil conservation studies, small engines and other things.

The beef show and the food exhibit are scheduled for the daytime hours of Thursday, July 24. At 7:30 that evening the best of the 4-H entertainment features will be given, including the winning sketch of the Share-the-Fun program, and the top public speaking and demonstration speakers.

The dog show will be Friday night, beginning at 6:30, and the closing day, Saturday,

Sangmeister Primary Candidate

SOUTHWEST -- Eleven candidates are running for the four nominations for delegates to the state constitutional convention in the 41st senatorial district, including one from this area,

George E. Sangmeister of Mokena.

Sangmeister, a member of a Joliet law firm, McKeown, McKeown, Fitzgerald, Zollner, Buck & Sangmeister, is a former justice of the peace and a former state's attorney, and is now village attorney for Mokena. He has a law office in Frankfort.

Also a candidate is Louis F. Bottino, of Wilmington, who is chairman of education department at Lewis College. He is a former county superintendent of schools and a former state representative. He was formerly a resident of Lockport and was superintendent of the high school there.

He also was acting superintendent of schools at Crete, assistant superintendent of grade schools at Joliet, and superintendent of the Peotone Unit district. He served in the Marine Corps in WW II, enlisting as a private and now has the rank of captain in the reserves.

The other candidates in the district are, Arthur Lennon, Joliet attorney; Gus Steen, Manhattan; Arthur O'Donnell, Monee; Lee Edwards, Joliet; Daniel Kennedy, Joliet attorney, Troy Township; Eugene L. House, Joliet; Stanley Hubbs, Monee; Vernon Young, Park Forest South; James J. O'Connell, Joliet, who has a real estate business in Lemont.

The primary, at which four will be nominated in the 41st district is scheduled for Sept. 23. The election is Nov. 18.

Allege Danger From Landfill

LEMONT -- A group of 55 Lemont Township homeowners attended a meeting at Acorn Ridge Park, July 10, to discuss the opposition expressed by the homeowners to the proposed landfill project at Mt. Vernon Memorial Hills Cemetery, Inc.

Raymond J. Walschlager presided. Unanimous opposition to the project was expressed by all attending.

Raymond Geiser expressed concern about the certain devaluation of property which would result from the proposed operation which "by whatever name would still smell like a garbage dump."

John Lewis, owner of Acorn Ridge Park, reported on the difficulty he is already experiencing in constructing a proper drainage system, and said the proposed landfill would make proper drainage next to impossible.

Fred Mathy Sr., a lifelong resident of the area, warned of contamination of natural springs and deep wells.

Daniel Diaz pointed out the unfairness to all taxpayers of having their taxes increased to meet the growing costs of schools, forest preserves, park districts, road and bridge building, while the Mt. Vernon Memorial Hills Cemetery does not pay taxes on its land.

"Think what the rest of us will be paying in increased taxes to repair and rebuild roads which they would damage by hauling their estimated 50 truckloads of debris per day over a ten year period." Diaz also called attention to the fact that the two main roads to be used by the contractor, Hwy. 171 (Archer) and McCarthy Rd., are school bus routes and would be an "intolerable hazard" to children who ride the school buses.

Mrs. Claudette Walschlager and Mrs. Nancy Diaz appealed to all who have loved-ones buried in Mt. Vernon Cemetery or who own lots there to call or write them. Both may be addressed: Rt. 1, Lemont, Ill. 60439. Mrs. Walschlager's phone is 257-6959, Mrs. Diaz's, 257-2686.

All interested residents are invited to be represented at the next hearing at 1 p.m., Aug. 11 at the Village Hall, 418 Main St., Lemont.

Water, Sewer Toll Hike Nearly 50%

LOCKPORT -- The Lockport City Council said it will raise water and sewer rates about 50 per cent retroactive to July 1. An ordinance authorizing this rate increase was approved at last Monday's council session.

The reason for the increase is to help pay for the recent sewer bond issue, operate and maintain the sewer system and to retain a surplus for capital improvements, explained Gordon McCluskey, director of public works.

Minimum quarterly bills will go from $7.50 to $8.70. Rate for 15,000 gallons of water will rise from $12.75 to $18.75; 20,000 gallons from $15.50 to $23; and 30,000 gallons from $21 to $31.50.

After some discussion, the council decided to approve $50 for the zoning officer, electrical, building and plumbing inspectors.

Lockport's VFW presented a flag to the council. It will be flown outside city hall. Mayor George Nordstrom said another new flag will replace the old one in the council chambers.

For the first time, the pledge to the flag was recited, led by Nordstrom.

This will be the first order of business at each and every council meeting, said Nordstrom.

Little League Band Parents were granted permission to hold Booster Days July 18 and 19. This drive is sponsored by the Little League Auxiliary. The $750 raised last year will help future plans of the Little League.

Donald Kimpel, who purchased the property at 1003 State St., notified the city that he is having the building demolished.

The council approved Cystic Fibrosis Week in Lockport for Sept. 14 to 21.

The Will County Historical Society, who will take over the I & M Canal office, will be sent a letter of intent by the council stating their request for future use of the free parking area.

Push Work On Primary School Plant At Mokena

MOKENA -- Construction on the new Willow crest primary school is moving steadily ahead but it is still uncertain whether the building will be ready for use when school opens Sept. 2, James Ennis, superintendent, reported to the board at its regular meeting July 9.

The masonry walls were scheduled to be completed this week and the roof over the second floor will then be done, Ennis said.

Most of the interior work is still to be done but if the building is not ready at the beginning of school, the superintendent told the board he has a plan that should take care of the situation.

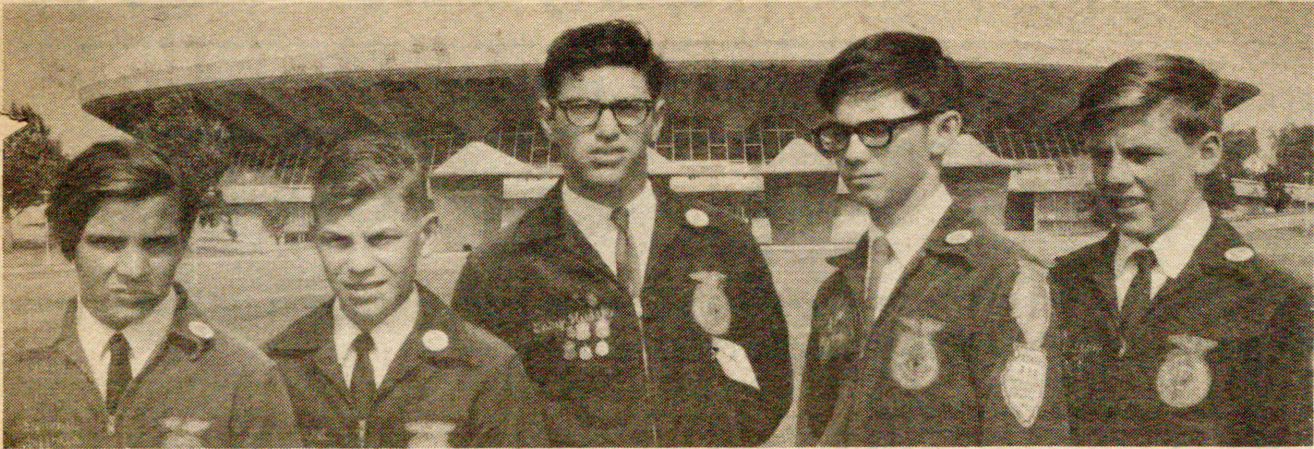

Ennis is asking the village board to adopt an ordinance that would make the west end of Willowcrest Lane a one-way street so that traffic can be controlled around a new circle drive serving both Willowcrest schools.

Willowcrest Lane would be a two-way street from Wolf Rd. to the new leg of the driveway. The other leg is the present drive along the east side of the school. Persons driving to the school would turn north on the new driveway and follow it around.

This drive -- it really would be a part of Willowcrest

Boys At UI Meet

LOCKPORT -- Eight members of the Lockport Chapter of Future Farmers of America attended the 41st annual convention of the Illinois Association for three days in the assembly hall at the University of Illinois. Over 3,000 persons attended the statewide event.

From Lockport were Jerry Paddock, retiring president; Gary Hudek, new president; Jary Carlson, vice president; Tim Philippart, Section 8 president of the Illinois Association of FFA. Ed Henry, Bill Albert, Dennis Jeffries and Elmer Kelm Jr., received the state farmer degree, the highest degree awarded by the state association.

All Lockport youths were on the convention program. Philippart presided over his section consisting of 16 area schools. Paddock and Hudek were official voting delegates with perfect attendance certificates for all sessions.

Carlson and Albert were ushers assisting with crowd management while Henry and Jeffries were stage crewmen.

In addition, these four members were in a skit on stage to construct the official FFA emblem for the more than 16,000 members in Illinois.

Residents Complain About Blasting

LEMONT -- A petition signed by over 100 residents of the Village of Lemont was presented to the Mayor and Board of Trustees at their regular meeting Monday evening. The petition stated the complaints of residents to the blasting that is being done in the area.

Residents reported that the blasting shakes the homes in the village, causing cracks in walls, floors, and breaking of dishes in cabinets.

Mayor John J. Kujawa told the board that in September of 1966 the same complaints were made to the board and the companies in the area using blasting techniques were required to stop.

Hearings were held at the village hall, at which time blasting was stopped until proper measures were taken to prevent the damages caused. Companies in the area are reported to be using tremendous amounts of dynamite to help speed up the blasting areas.

Police Chief Frank Sowa reported that his office receives calls everytime the blasting is done. He reported that on an average they receive about six calls every day. Proper checking and reports are filled out by his department.

A motion was made by Trustee John Weber that a letter be forwarded to the companies involved. In the letter the board would ask to be notified when the blasting would take place, and what precautionary measures would be taken by the companies to prevent damage to area homes. The motion was seconded by Trustee Dr. Barry J. Ladd.

The letter will be forwarded to all area companies and the sanitary district by the village clerk.

Discussion was also held on the excessive amounts of gas fumes in the air, mostly those of chlorine gas.

The fumes, as reported Trustee Ladd, were from the area companies that use gas. Complaints on this were also presented to the board.

Dr. Ladd reported that this matter would be checked into and a report made at the next board meeting.

Expands

ROMEOVILLE -- The Romeo Recreation Board has expanded its services. Tennis lessons will be given during July and August at Lockport West High School on Tuesday and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to noon and from 6 to 8:45 p.m.

Booster Club Elects Officers

LEMONT -- New officers were elected at the July meeting of the Lemont High Booster Club. The winner of the 14-foot boat, motor and trailer was named at the meeting.

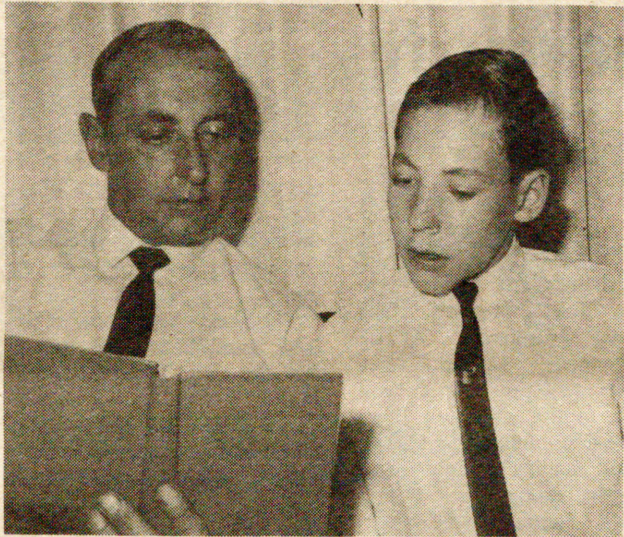

New officers for the coming year are Jim Suchey, president; Perry Edwards, vice-president; Lou Novak, treasurer; and Tom Schluter, secretary. The club then thanked the officers from last year, Hugh Wallace and Bob Nona, for work they did.

Winner of the boat was Ray Affelt of 503 Lemont St. The winning ticket was sold by Joe Forzley, booster member, and was drawn by Kim Wierschem, a third grade student from St. Joseph's School in Lockport.

The Booster Club again donated to the Lemont Band Boosters. This year the sum of $100 was given to help defray the cost of the trip to Muskegon, where the band took first place.

The club also paid the outstanding balance due on the championship football that the frosh-soph team had "bronzed," and purchased two new tackling dummies to add to the school's athletic equipment.

Next meeting of the club will be 7:30 p.m., Aug. 5 at the Lemont High School. All adults interested in the athletic progress of the high school are invited to attend.

JOSEPH G. HORAK and family of Hinsdale, travel to Lemont each week where Korak, an assistant minister of the Westmont Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, takes charge of the activities of the Lemont group of witnesses. Horak and his son, Joseph Jr., discuss the plans for the upcoming July 21-27 assembly to be held at White Sox Park. "Peace on Earth" will be the assembly theme.

Await 'First Step' Time

Everyone is waiting breathlessly to see the exact landing on the moon of an American astronaut. Also waiting with more interest than others are 865 readers of the Graphic Newspapers who entered the "Man On The Moon" contest.

The contest was co-sponsored by the Graphic Newspapers and TODAY, the primary Gannet newspaper serving the Cape Kennedy area.

In a tally released from Gannet Newspapers, it was noted that entries were received from everyone of the 50 states, plus Canada and other miscellaneous places. The number of entries ranged from 90,162 to 2 from individual sponsors of the contest. TODAY and Graphic ranked sixth.

The contest will be judged by computer in Cocoa Beach, Fla., under the direction of TODAY. The national winner will be awarded a two-week, all-expense paid vacation for two anywhere on earth. Second prize will be a two-week, all-expense paid vacation at Cape Kennedy's Cocoa Beach to view a future space shot.

The local winner, those from Graphic Newspapers, receive a set of World Book Encyclopedia. The next five runners-up will each receive a 1969 World Book Encyclopedia Yearbook.

As soon as the time for the instant the first Apollo 11 Astronaut steps on the surface of the moon is officially determined by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, judging will begin. Winners in the contest will be notified.

CREWMEN of the Apollo 11 mission are, from left, Neil Armstrong, commander. He's 38, a civilian, and the father of two sons ages 12 and 6. In center is Lt. Col. Michael Collins, command module pilot, 38, father of daughters ages 10 and 7, and a son, 6. At right is Lt. Col. Edwin Aldrin Jr., who will pilot the lunar module Eagle. Aldrin is 39, father of sons ages 13 and 11 and a 12 year old daughter. Armstrong will be the first man to step on the moon, and that is expected to take place Monday morning, just a little less than 12 hours after the Eagle lunar module touches down on the moon's surface. Armstrong will walk around for two hours and 40 minutes.

Men, Craft Are Moon 'Stars'

Man's first trip to the moon's surface, scheduled for lift-off this morning at 8:30 local time, will reach its climax early Monday morning. Neil Armstrong will step from the lunar module landing vehicle, named Eagle. Everything has been tested, through the flights of Apollo 9 and 10. But unlike Apollo 10's lunar module which came within nine miles of the moon's surface in a "rehearsal," Apollo 11 goes all the way. After 75 hours flight, the astronauts begin orbiting the moon. Sunday afternoon the lunar module Eagle will separate from the command module that remains in orbit with Lt. Col. Michael Collins piloting. The lunar module, like all the rest of the space vehicle for the eight day trip, is very complex. Eagle is awkward looking, but it is also the first true manned space craft. Other space craft, like the Eagle's mother ship, are shaped to bear the searing heat of re-entering the earth's atmosphere. Eagle, because it will fly only in space, is designed to perform without the re-entry restriction. Six antennas, 18 rockets and four spidery legs jut from its oddly-angled sides, which are patterned in gold and black to control the heat from the sun. It weighs 16 tons and stands 23 feet high, incorporating 25 miles of wiring and a million-odd parts. The lower half of the machine houses a variable thrust rocket engine which enables it to hover like a helicopter. When their 22 hours on the moon's surface are completed Monday, Armstrong and Lt. Col. Edwin Aldrin will launch themselves back to the command module that has been orbiting the moon. The two astronauts will fire an engine in the upper half of the Eagle lunar module, using the lower half as their launching pad. The trip back to the earth begins, with splashdown next Thursday, a week from tomorrow.

EAGLE, the lunar landing module, is really two sections, as shown below in the illustration. The ascent stage is on top, and it houses Neil Armstrong and Edwin Aldrin for the ride down to the moon and back up. The descent stage is the bottom half and it has fuel and engines only for the trip down from orbit. It will be left behind when Armstrong and Aldrin return in the Eagle ascent stage to the orbiting command module. Probers are dangling nearly seven feet below the footpads, and are to tell the astronauts inside when to shut off the descent engine to land. The overall height of the Eagle is 23 feet, about four times as tall as a man.

To Be Or Not To Be?

FRANKFORT -- The Frankfort planning commission has given approval to a tentative plat for housing development near the sewage treatment plant. There are to be 27 lots of approximately 90 by 150 feet in size. The planning commission recommends curb and gutter for the streets but not sidewalks, the chairman, Bert Breidert, told the village board. Joseph Schmudt Associates are the developers. There are areas where the people don't want sidewalks, he said, where sidewalks are not needed. The village board has the final decision, it was pointed out. Trustee Howard Osmus raised the question of what a yes-no policy on sidewalks might have in other situations. The village board has given Jake Guth until tomorrow, July 17, to conform to the ordinance limiting the height of fences to five feet. He allegedly has a fence 6 1/2-feet high.

In the notice sent Guth was informed that each day of violation was a separate offense and the penalty for each was a fine ranging from $5 to $200. He was also apprised that he could appeal to the zoning board for a variation. Trustee Lynn Kohlhaugen presided at the meeting last week as acting mayor. Mayor Glenn Warning was out of town. Street commission Trustee Kohlhaugen introduced a resolution which was adopted by the board relative to the use of motor fuel tax money for oiling and chipping village streets. Approximately $7,797 will be used and bids are to be taken soon. A. J. Schager, manager of the Illinois Bell telephone service for the Lockport area, which includes Mokena, Frankfort and New Lenox, attended the Frankfort board meeting. The franchise is to be re-valued. Touchtone phones will not be available for Frankfort subscribers for several years, he said. Recently Frankfort was provided with direct dialing.

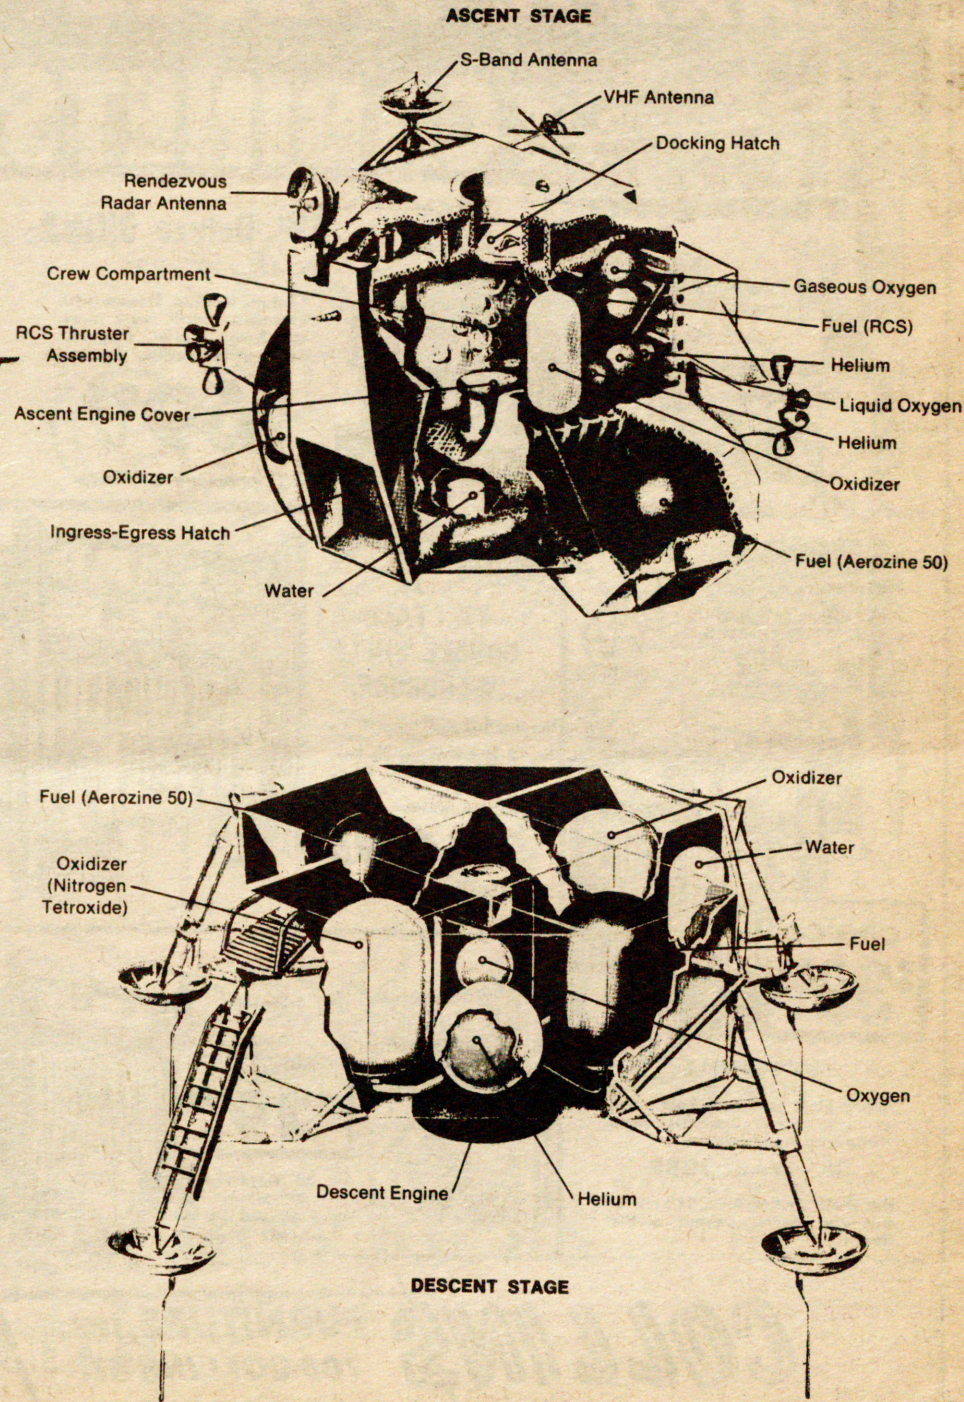

Estimate State Aid Payments

SOUTHWEST -- Estimates of state aid payments for Will County schools have been released by County Supt. Boyd Bucher. Under the $520 formula adopted at this last session of the legislature the Will County schools will receive $4,130,382 more than they would have under the former $400 formula. The $400 formula would have produced $8,300,991, Bucher said, while the $520 formula would bring in some $12,432,000, according to attendance figures for the 1968-69 school year just completed. The estimates, Bucher explained, are based upon a flat grant of $48 for all districts, $472 special equalization, qualifying rates of 90 cents for dual districts, $1.08 for units, high school weighting of average daily attendance at $1.25. Estimates are rounded to even dollar amounts.

Diaper Days At Behnke's

FRANKFORT -- For the past three years the Behnke photographic studios on U.S. 30 in Lincoln Estates have engaged in a novel promotion to benefit some organization that helps with the care of infants. Diaper Days is the name of the promotion, so called because during July parents are asked to bring in diapers in place of the usual sitting fee.

Scandia Apartments Under Fire At Meet

LOCKPORT -- Scandia Courts apartments in south Lockport were under fire at Monday's city council session. Two tenants appeared before the council to voice their complaints.

One tenant said he will move out shortly because his lease has expired and the new owners will not issue leases. They are demanding $50 per week rent in cash and will not accept checks, the tenant claimed. He said he paid $129 monthly under his lease.

One bedroom apartments rent for $45 a week. There are six buildings with 20 units in each building.

These complaints were voiced against Executive Affiliates Inc. of Aurora. A Joliet firm owns a portion of the buildings but apparently there have been no complaints against them.

Councilman Frank Meyers felt the apartments might fall under hotel management and suggested the council check whether or not the owners had a hotel license.

City Attorney Eugene Korst said he didn't think they fit in the hotel category and tenants do not have to live there. They can go elsewhere.

Tenants also complained about not enough garbage containers for the 40 units.

A letter was also received from Grant Lawrence, zoning officer, voicing some of the same complaints.

Mayor George Nordstrom told the tenants Korst would check into the situation. Fire Chief Carl Munson, Zoning Officer Lawrence and Building Inspector Eddie Sandbloom, will be asked to investigate the units.

Affect Breathing

Respiratory diseases are a group of sicknesses that affect breathing. Some are contagious; you can catch them from sick people.

R. J. SHOW (left), president of Cooper Show Ford Company of 11 White St., Frankfort, was honored by Ford Division at a luncheon in Chicago, when he received the division's two highest awards -- the dealer customer relations citation and the distinguished achievement award. Presenting the customer relations citation was Bernard L. Crumpton, division's Chicago district sales manager.

Raise Police Pay

LOCKPORT -- Police will receive a 10 per cent salary increase retroactive to July 1 as approved at Monday's Lockport City Council meeting. Police Chief Robert Gait will receive a 25 per cent increase.

Another 10 per cent increase for police and the chief in October will be contingent upon the city receiving an added one-fourth cent sales tax.

Mayor George Nordstrom said the city has a good police department and the city does not need to be ashamed of what they are now paying them. Police department is very important to Lockport, said Mayor Nordstrom.

All councilmen approved the pay hike with the exception of George Wolfe who okayed the first increase but not the second one set for October. Councilman Len Strahanowski was absent.

Payroll approved included police department salaries of $4,252.62; street department, $1,303.14; administration, $516.66; janitor, $136; and clerk for city clerk's office, $83.33.

Still Working on Teachers' Pay

By ANN KARKUT
LOCKPORT -- District 205 High School board is still working on the teachers' pay scale for the coming year.

Harold Scholle, superintendent, said some things still must be checked out with Attorney Anthony Scariano.

This was reported to the Lockport Teachers Organization (LTO) representatives at Thursday's high school board meeting.

Secretaries will receive a $200 increase and the starting salary will be $4,600 as approved at this session.

Nurses will receive a $200 increase.

Driver training program was discussed again. Superintendent Scholle said the district can get $13,000 through the county highway program. According to Boyd Bucher, Will County superintendent of schools, the county has $35,000 available. Money will be given to the Lockport and Joliet districts on the basis of pupil population.

The board decided to buy a reconditioned 12 unit simulator for $15,000 at East High and a driving range for $12,000 at West High. The board approved the purchase with cost not to exceed $28,000.

One classroom door will be installed at East High as recommended by Scholle. Pasch Construction bid $480. Two bids were sent out but only one came in.

The reason for installing this door at East High is the heavy traffic going by. It distracts the students.

Students participating in athletics this fall will pay for their own physical exams. Previously fees were paid by the district. Principals at respective schools can arrange a schedule for exams.

Band students will pay a $5 fee pre semester for rental of school band instruments.

You Hear Sheriff's Radio ?

FRANKFORT -- The radio system used by the Will County sheriff's office to transmit orders and information to its police squads is about to become silent again.

The electric line bringing power to transmit messages from the Frankfort water tower was disconnected--not cut as some news media preferred to say--the evening of July 1.

It was re-connected the next morning. It was believed the county was going to do something to remedy the situation. Frankfort village officials have been complaining for six years that the county's two transmitters atop the water tower raise hob with television reception.

But as of last week when the village board had a meeting nothing had been done. Village Attorney August Santoro was instructed to write another letter to the chairman of the Will County board of supervisors, Roy Hassert, with a copy going to Sheriff Martin Jackson.

Unless something is done to correct the condition by July 22, the power would again be shut off, the attorney was told to say.

Village officials say that a filter to halt the TV jamming would cost approximately $800.

The other transmitter the county has at Frankfort was used by civil defense. It now handles messages to and from county road crews.

Walter Pfaff, village clerk, told the board last week that some unidentified caller telephoned him around 3 o'clock the morning of July 2 to threaten him with dire things if the sheriff's police transmitter was not restored to service immediately.

If there were a disaster, the caller went on, it would be too bad for Pfaff. Pfaff thought it was pretty bad to be roused at 3 a.m. and to be harranged by someone who didn't identify himself.

According to some news media county authorities had not been apprised that Frankfort authorities were prepared to turn off the power July 1 if the transmitter were not removed or fixed.

In reply village officials have made public three letters, written by the village attorney on instructions of the board. All were addressed to Hassert with copies to the sheriff. The letters:

The first is dated April 21, 1969. It concludes:

"... We therefore request that this radio equipment be removed from our village immediately.

"Please advise us of your intent in this matter."

The second letter, dated June 24, 1969, concluded:

"As there appears to be no other alternative open to us, we shall, on July 1, 1969, turn off the electricity servicing the radio antennas in questions. We sincerely hope that the County will make arrangements so that police broadcasting will not be interfered with.

"We are sorry that we have been forced to take such a stern measure in this matter; however, after having our requests ignored for the last two years, we feel we have no other choice."

The most recent letter is dated July 8, 1969. It said in part:

"... On June 24, 1969, I again wrote and advised you that if no action was taken by July 1, 1969, we would turn off the electricity serving the radio antenna in question. We received no response. ... other than a rather derogatory newspaper article ... in the Joliet paper, in which Sheriff Jackson stated that he had investigated the matter by talking to a Boy Scout and that he did not think the matter was at all serious.

Many auto owners carry the statutory minimums for bodily injury and property damage liability. These limits will satisfy the legal requirements imposed by law, but they may not satisfy the liberal awards handed down by the courts in personal injury cases. Nor will they be adequate in a multi-vehicle highway accident. Nor does this amount go far toward the spiraling costs of medical care.

The at-fault driver is responsible for the amount of damages he causes without regard to the minimum insurance prescribed by the State.

There is always apprehension about the extent of coverage AFTER an accident -- when it is too late to change. The proper time to satisfy your concern is NOW! Call ILLINOIS SECURITIES CO. at 726-5376 and discuss your limits of liability with any one of our professional staff.

What's new, coffee cup? A kitchen counter that cooks. Electrically, of course.

On the level. A sleek stretch of tempered ceramic is the newest electric range. Only its temperature dials give it away.

It looks like a counter, but it cooks like a range. So where is the heat? Under the tempered ceramic surface. That's its marvelous advantage. Comes clean-up time, all it takes is once-over-lightly with a sponge.

First the oven that cleans itself. Now, a counter that cooks, and keeps cleaning simple. Where do these great ideas come from? Where else?

Excellent Service

On July 31, a Hunter Chapman, of New Lenox, will retire as superintendent of Lincoln-Way High School. He has held the post for 17 years for the school, which serves New Lenox, Frankfort and Manhattan townships.

In that time he has brought the school from the architectural drawing stage to one of the outstanding secondary educational institutions in the state.

Under the guidance, leadership and capable administration of Supt. Chapman, Lincoln-Way provides an excellent outlook and up-to-date picture of educational problems.

The high school works well with the elementary public and parochial schools of the district. There is good planning, supervision and a friendly, wholesome atmosphere at the school. Discipline that can be described as outstanding, and it has been brought about through mutual respect and rapport of staff, faculty and students.

Supt. Chapman belongs to many educational organizations, local, district, state and national. He has been the head of some and has served all on numerous committees. He has been a teacher, athletic coach, and administrator. He is a professional educator.

What A Show!

There are two events this week and next that merit the attention of everyone in the area - - the South Cook County and the Will County 4-H fairs. Both are at the Fred Francis 4-H Field in New Lenox Township.

The South Cook show is on tomorrow, Friday and Saturday. The Will County show will run five days next week, from Tuesday thru Saturday.

Practically everything found at a county or state fair except midway attractions, motor vehicle or horse racing can be seen at the 4-H fairs - but the exhibitors are all youngsters.

The livestock, the poultry, the rabbits, the farm and garden produce, the foods, the clothing, and all the other numerous projects on exhibition are the end result of thousands of but fortunately for the Lincoln-Way district he is also a practical, level-headed being with a lot of common sense, a refreshing quality these days.

Under his guidance the Lincoln-Way district has operated consistently within its budget in the development of a quality educational program. During his tenure the school's enrollment has grown from 290 to the 1,346 at the close of the past school year.

During that time many innovations in team teaching, independent study, study of the humanities, community service, remedial measures to promote skills in various subjects have been activated at Lincoln-Way. The vocational agriculture course is one of the largest programs of its kind in the midwest.

Forward steps also have been taken in other vocational education and on-the-job training programs.

Supt. Chapman has spent 36 years in his profession. The people of the Lincoln-Way district are fortunate that they have had almost half of this service.

We take this opportunity to wish him and Mrs. Chapman a long and enjoyable retirement. They have earned it.

hours of work and study by the girls and boys who make up 4-H.

It is well worth anyone's time to visit these 4-H fairs and see what a wonderful job these kids do. There is no admission charge but if one had to lay down money for a ticket it would be worth every penny of it.

The farm advisers and home economics advisers in agricultural extension work and scores of adults, many of whom are parents of 4-H'ers, pool their knowledge and time to attend to the multitude of details necessary to conduct these fairs. They are to be congratulated as well as thanked for the job they do.

And our sincere congratulations and thanks to the boys and girls for bringing to the area such entertaining and instructive projects.

'I Pledge Allegiance'

"I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Reciting the pledge to the flag is a precedent set by Mayor George Nordstrom of Lockport. It was done for the first time at last Monday's Lockport City Council session. It will be said at each and every council meeting, the mayor noted.

The need is greater than ever for each and every one of us to be reminded of what a great country we live in.

We would like to see this custom, reciting the pledge to the flag, instituted at each and every public meeting throughout the area.

Library Board President Herman Alberico instituted the pledge last year when he became board president of the Lockport Township Public Library.

Most of the time there are few or no visitors - - but the pledge to the flag is not for show - - it is for real to make each and every public servant more aware of why he is serving his community.

Support Obscenity Stop in Mails

The National Association of Letter Carriers, AFL-CIO, went on record at their Washington D.C. legislative conference officially commending the program of President Richard M. Nixon on, for his efforts to drive obnoxious obscene material permanently out of the postal service.

Delegates to the conference, more than 3100 from every state in the Union, further resolved to pledge maximum support to legislation which will accomplish the President's objective in this regard.

James H. Rademacher, president of the 200,000 member letter carrier Union, called the legislative conference to promote various bills introduced in Congress this session in regard to postal employees and the postal service in general.

Teenage Downfall: Drugs

The subject closest to parents' hearts are their children, their pride and joy. But in reality how many parents do not know their child at all, or what their child does on his own?

One of the present fads among some teens today is use of hallucinatory drugs. These drugs include more than marijuana and heroin. More common is use of cold pills, aspirins and, the latest one, motion sickness pills.

Any pill with a narcotic added seems to be tried.

Hallucinatory drugs in the system cause a variety of effects. Some affect the nervous system, causing either an extremely relaxed state or a keyed-up, turned-on state. Others affect the mind, causing a person to see the "world beyond," or to experience a new feeling, such as floating on clouds.

A turned-on youth actually sees the world through an entirely different perspective than he normally would. Seeing the world through a "third set of eyes" can come through over use of alcohol. But medically speaking, alcohol does not have the same lasting effect that drugs do - - the warping and destroying of the mind.

Why do kids turn to such things? Many factors enter the picture. A shy, introverted teen may do it to break out of his shell. Others do it just because their friends are doing it and they don't want to be different.

Whatever their reasons they stem from society. The fast pace of today's world causes teens to feel they should belong, and if going along with the group makes them belong, they do it.

Another reason for getting hooked on the turned-on kick is a lack of activities, especially during the summer months. During winter school is in session and at least the better part of the day is used. During the summer teens, especially unemployed ones, have time on their hands and nothing constructive to do with it.

How can parents help combat this problem? More interest in their child's activities would be a start. Supervised activities for teens of all ages is another step.

Maybe just interest in your child and his friends and the world around him could be a great start.

Income Goes Out

Most of us will be taking home $100 or $200 less in the coming year.

Those are rather broad ball-park figures, but that's about what the soon-to-be levied income tax state income tax is going to cost most workers.

Most of that, of course, won't be seen because the two and a half per cent tax will be deducted from paychecks right along. Deductions start Aug. 1.

When it's time to file a state income tax return, the state tax will be figured from the gross income that's been listed on the federal tax form.

Each taxpayer will be allowed a $1,000 exemption, plus a $1,000 exemption for each dependent.

There are many things that the legislators Governor Ogilvie, who enacted the state's first income tax, just don't know.

The biggest question for the elected representatives is how their constituents are going to react at the polls in the next election they face. That is an imponderable the lawmakers just couldn't spell out as neatly as the percentages in the tax bill.

The taxpayer will be reminded of the tax each time he gets a pay check. The frosting on the cake will be the added annual drill of filing a state tax return, and worse, finding paycheck deductions don't cover all that's owed.

Here's what the bite will be:

Exemptions	$5,000	$7,500	$10,000
1	$100	$162.50	$225
2	$75	$137.50	$200
3	$50	$112.50	$175
4	$25	$87.50	$150
5	No Tax	$62.50	$125

(Persons earning $15,000 yearly, add $125 to each level in $10,000 bracket).

BEWARE all you housewives who will become widows when the duck hunting season descends upon you. For those of you whose husbands are avid duck hunters, the season is fast approaching.

Drawings for duck blinds at several locations will be held Aug. 2. At Sanganois-Knapp Island the drawing will be at the river landing check station on the west side of the Illinois, one and one-half miles north of Browning, off Illinois Rt. 100.

Spring Lake in Tazewell County will hold its drawing at Pat's landing on the county road crossing Spring Lake.

Woodford County holds its drawing at the public hunting and fishing area off Illinois Rt. 87, north of East Peoria and across the river from Chillicothe.

At Marshall County, the place is at the public hunting and fishing area north of the Woodford County area and about seven miles south of Lacon.

Sparland holds its drawing at the parking area on the west side of the Illinois River, north of Sparland.

At Andersen Lake, drawing will be held at the concession at the lake 10 miles north of Browning on Rt. 100.

These drawings are all held Aug. 2 and hunters must register between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. and be present for the drawings which begin at 2 p.m. Registrants must be at least 16 years old and have a 1968 or 69 hunting license in their possession.

Grundy County will have a drawing Aug. 3 at Channahon State Park south of U.S. Route 6 at the edge of Channahon. Blind sites are located on the north side of the Illinois and Des Plaines Rivers above the Dresden dam and locks.

Will County also holds a duck blind drawing Aug. 3 at the Des Plaines hunting area permit station off Blodgett Rd.

Grass Lake drawing is July 27 at the Chain O' Lakes State Park north of Fox Lake town and west of Grass Lake in Lake County.

Times and regulations for drawings along the Mississippi are the same as those for the Illinois river areas.

Mississippi River areas are Quincy Bay and Long Island with drawings set for Aug. 2 at Sid Simpson State Park, Quincy. Drawings for both areas will be at the same time.

Potter's Marsh and the Savanna Depot area will be July 26 at the Lazy River Marina north of Savanna. All regulations are explained at the drawings.

Like to hunt teal? Illinois will have another special teal season this year but if you take advantage of the season you must also take responsibility for being able to identify a teal.

Season begins Saturday, Sept. 6, and ends Sunday, Sept. 14, with hunting hours 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily. Bag limit is four teal daily and possession limit is eight.

Hunters may take blue-winged, green-winged or cinnamon teal only. All other ducks and goose are protected during this season. If you shoot at or kill any other kind of waterfowl during this time you will be in trouble with the conservation department.

Follow the rules hunters and here's hoping you have a successful hunting season.

Our Representatives Report On Work For Us

STATE SENATOR MEADE BALTZ (R-41) has termed legislation he sponsored "a real boon" for not-for-profit hospitals. The bill, he said, is designed to curb the rising cost of hospital care. It's passed the senate and the house.

The legislation provides hospitals with the opportunity to issue tax exempt bonds. The tax exemption enables the hospital to save 20 to 30 per cent in interest rate costs, Baltz estimated. Lower resulting construction costs would mean less of an increase in patient care charges.

Baltz said St. Joseph and Silver Cross hospitals supported his bill. Rep. George M. Burditt (R-9), was a co-sponsor in the house of representatives.

STATE REP. JOHN J. HOULIHAN (D-41) has revealed "two basic reasons why I voted against the state income tax."

"I object strongly to simply adding another tax on top of the extremely regressive taxes which the people pay . . .

"The income tax is probably the most fair tax of any that can be levied. I have always maintained, however, that reform must come before any additional taxes are placed on the people," Houlihan said.

"The tax as requested by Governor Ogilvie will produce a surplus in the state treasury of at least $200 million in 1970 . . .

"It is time for reform and austerity. I voted against the tax because neither is in sight," Houlihan said.

CLARENCE LIPMAN, WILL COUNTY

TREASURER, believes "with the passage of Senate Bill 816, Will County citizens have the best chance yet to get rid of the hated personal property tax."

SB 816 would exempt the first car and household goods from assessment for personal property tax. The bill would allow Will County township assessors to treat people the same way most people in Chicago are treated. In short, most would escape any assessment, Lipman indicated.

"Anyone who wants to help get this bill signed into law should write Governor Richard B. Ogilvie in Springfield as soon as possible," Lipman suggested.

CONG. EDWARD J. DERWINSKI (R-41) told persons at an Independence Day celebration "A good many people - both at home and abroad - find too much to criticize and too little to praise about our country . . .

"Our country has good reason to observe with dignity and honor the birthday of the Declaration of Independence. Not because the perfection of the system envisioned has been achieved, but because true to the spirit of that Declaration of 1776, we continue to strive - and succeed far better than any other nation - to uphold what the authors of that noble document describe as self-evident truths:

"that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness," Derwinski concluded.

'Have Concern For Teachers'

(Editors Note: The following letter was written by a resident of New Lenox. Name of the author was signed on the letter but was omitted by request.)

Dear Editor:

Very shortly another school year will come to a close. For the next three months our children will be our sole responsibility.

It is our duty to raise these youngsters to be the responsible adults who will govern our country in the all too soon future. Sadly enough many parents feel that they are responsible for their children only during the summer months. In the fall let the teacher raise that child, but as the parents dictate.

Yes, our teachers do have a duty to help in the raising of our children. But, by the same token, we parents have the responsibility of becoming involved in the activities of our schools, both socially and academically.

We can be concerned with the social activities of our youngsters by attending sports events and volunteering our help, even if we don't have a child in the event. Don't wait for someone to call you - you step forward.

Be concerned about your teachers. They are human and err. So do you! Be compassionate and understanding with them when a question arises. Under their control they average 25 students per hour from 8:50 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Could you "keep your cool" every day, five days a week from September thru May? Think again - 25 energy packed youngsters between the ages of 5 and 14 with a completely new concept of life from your generation. Think again! God bless these teachers; they've got to be angels!

Be concerned about your Parent Teacher Organization. This group was formed to promote the welfare of the parents, teachers and students. The officers and members of the board have a moral responsibility to all the citizens of the area to carry out the purpose of the organization when they accepted an office. It is a tremendous responsibility and not one to be taken lightly. Failure to do so makes them morally responsible for the corruption of the youth in the area.

But it is also the duty of all parents to become mem-

State Objection To Fence Ordinance

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is a reprint of a letter that was printed in the July 2 edition. Lines of type were not in order and the letter is being re-run.)

Dear Editor:

How well do the residents know Frankfort? Do they know that if they are planning to build a fence anywhere on their property they first must have a building permit? Do they know that fences in Frankfort can only be five-feet tall, and must be inspected by the building inspector? I was told the reason for this is that one must be able to see over the fence.

Can you see over your fence? Have you measured your fence lately? There is so much concern over the height of a fence, yet complete disregard for the lives of Frankfort residents.

Have you ever driven down Ash Street, going north from Nebraska St. to Kansas St. If not, you have really missed something, especially in the evening hours. It is like an obstacle course. First on the corner of Ash and Kansas Streets is a beautiful obstruction in the middle of the street.

You must either go to the right or left of this to make a turn onto Kansas Street. The cars and trucks parked at an angle on the south side of the street protrude so far out into Kansas St. that you are taking your life in your hands when attempting to turn the corner.

But the life you save may be your own. It is far more important to see over your neighbors fence then around a corner.

During the school term we have yet another obstacle course. The busy corner of Nebraska and White streets becomes a real hazard. Buses attempting to park in the parking lot pull into and back out of Nebraska Street, sometimes it takes three or four attempts before the bus is finally out of the street and parked. Yet, if you or I were to do the same thing, we would get a warning or maybe a ticket for obstructing bers of the group and take an active part by attending the meetings. At election time every parent should make a point of knowing who is willing to accept an office and to support a candidate on his qualification, not on friendship or for personal gain.

These are tremendous responsibilities and many of us have been derelict in our duty as parents and citizens. But it is never too late to start on the upgrade. If you are going to "let George do it" fine! But today YOU are George.

New Lenox Resident

Tells The Why Of Fence Ordinance

Editor:

It is not the normal policy of this office to answer complaints concerning the existence or enforcement of the ordinances of the Village of Frankfort. However, there appears to be some confusion and misunderstanding concerning our ordinance limiting the height of fences.

In the Village of Frankfort the height of front yard fences is limited to thirty inches. The height of back yard fences is limited to five feet. These limitations were established in 1957 at the time the original zoning ordinance for the Village was passed.

If such limitations were not imposed, it would be possible for your neighbors to construct back yard fences ten or fifteen feet in height. Your back yard would then resemble the inside of a prison yard. The normal flow of air would be shut off, as would sunlight.

Reasonable restrictions must be imposed in order to prevent such a condition from occurring. Should anyone wish a variation from these restrictions, a petition requesting such a variation can be filed with the Zoning Board of Appeals.

For the purpose of enforcing all zoning and building code ordinances, the Village has recently hired a full-time zoning officer and building inspector. A building permit is required for all construction work to be done within the Village. There is no fee for the issuance of such a permit if the construction in question costs less than $200.00.

By requiring that a permit be issued, the Village is advised of all construction contemplated and is in a position to advise the party applying as to whether or not they can legally perform the work they contemplate.

Very truly yours,
August J. Santoro
Village Attorney

The Boob-Blues

By JACKIE FREITAG

It finally happened. I had heard about it happening to others, but I never thought it would happen to me. But, alas and alack, it did and now I'm a better person for it. At least I think I am.

What finally happened? I got TV-ITIS. For those laymen who don't understand my language I am now officially hooked to the television set. I can not stand an evening without watching the boob-tube.

Little did I ever think that Rowan and Martin would get under my skin on Monday evenings. Or did I ever think that I would become a member of the Mod Squad on Tuesday nights.

Wednesday evening is kind-of-a-drag. The only good thing that keeps my moral up is Here Come the Brides - I'm still hoping. Thursday evening is what is commonly known as "Turn-On Night" at our place. First there's Tom Jones (one solid hour of pure heaven), followed by Dean Martin (that little old Italian bliss spreader.)

Friday evening is dull, unless there's a good movie on. Saturday night is fantastic -- after getting through the bungling actions of Get Smart, followed by either Hogan's Heroes or the movie, the evening pretty well takes care of itself. Sunday afternoon is really groovy, especially after the baseball games are over.

Evening TV is fine, it can be done in moderation, but the thing that will get even a sane person to cry is the afternoon soap-operas. Oh, heaven help you if you don't have a box of Kleenex handy.

The crying session starts after Bozo's Circus is over, after all you have to appeal to all age groups.

Dark Shadows, General Hospital, and all the other heart-breaking stories of man's conflict against man (is it really such a conflict, or is it just exaggerated??) make the afternoon complete.

I only have one problem -- how do you work and still keep up with them after your vacation is over and you have now officially become hooked? There are usually two suggestions for solutions.

1. Make sure that you pick out your favorite one and take your lunch hour at that time. If you are lucky the restaurant where you eat will have a television. The only problem is, what if your favorite serial is on late in the afternoon? It is kind of hard to take a 3 or 4 p.m. lunch break.

2. This is the more practical, but unenjoyable solution -- have someone who is at home watch the serial every day and give you a report. I used this solution. Only problem was the person watching them got the plots all mixed up and now I am completely lost.

I guess it is finally time to take my vacation and get interested in the little flowers of joy all over again.

AVA ORDMAN

Selected For U.S. Band

LOCKPORT -- Ava Ordman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ordman of 138th and State Rd., Lockport, has been selected for membership in the 1969 United States of America Band and Chorus.

Selection was made by a committee of musicians of the basis of quality musicianship, character and leadership ability from hundreds of applicants from every state in the nation. Students from 46 states qualified in the band and chorus touring Japan from June 26 through July 16.

Miss Ordman is a member of Lockport Central-East High School Band and the Youth Orchestra of Greater Chicago. She was recommended to this organization by Ernest O. Caneva, director of Lockport Central's band, and director of the United States of America High School Band of 1968.

The organization assembled in Los Angeles on June 25, and flew to Tokyo, Japan, on June 26. Rehearsal was set-up for the concert tour of American High Schools in Tokyo.

One of the highlights of the tour will be the band's appearance in the Lions International Parade with the chorus joining them for one selection in front of the reviewing stand.

The appearance will be followed by concerts in Tokyo, Yokohama, Hamamatsu, Nogoya, Takarazuka, Osaka, Kyoto, Fukuoka, and at the grand opening of the Yamaha Music Camp at Hamajima, where they will be joined by Japanese student musicians.

New Diet Helps Uremia Patients

Because their kidneys do not function properly, some 8,000 uremia patients in the U.S. have to undergo the ordeal of dialysis -- machine separation of waste matter and water from the blood -- twice a week.

However, a diet developed in Italy holds promise of reducing the necessity for the procedure to only once every two weeks.

Dr. Robert S. Morrison of Lemuel Shattuck Hospital in Boston reports recent successful experimentation with dialyzed whey, the clear fluid that separates from the curd of sour milk.

Use of the powdered whey in the diets of uremia patients was originally introduced by Drs. Carmelo Giordano and Sergio Giovanetti in Italy.

Resort to a hemodialyzing machine once every other week by patients instead of twice a week would free the machines to care for at least 6,000 more cases.

It would also free the patients of their relentless routine long enough to carry on more normal lives, assuming they have the determination to stay on the diet.

Most individuals have not been able to tolerate the monotony of the Italian meatless, egg-rich regime, and soon revert to their twice-weekly trip to the hospital. Dr. Morrison, however, with the aid of his dietitian, Miss Claude Parrot, has tried to make the diet more palatable.

Together, they have concocted pizzas, spaghetti sauces, custards, pies, cookies, cakes and many other recipes that employ the powdered whey.

The diet is still meatless and fishless. Patients also must forego all alcoholic beverages and may add only non-dairy products to their tea or coffee.

If they are thirsty they must drink a limited amount of ginger ale rather than water, and must take cooking lessons to learn how to use the whey.

RADIATION CONTROL--Hodgkin's disease can be controlled by massive doses of radiation, instead of the mild doses usually applied, says Dr. David L. Rosenbaum of UCLA. He believes such doses can cure at least half of those with Stage I or Stage II of the disease.

ARTIFICIAL BRAIN

Doctors at the University of Wisconsin believe they can use a device made of a piece of insulating material between two pieces of metal as the basis for an electronic system that would function like the human brain.

DRUG FROM PLASTIC

The same melamine used in automobile distributor caps may soon become HXM, a drug for treatment of lung cancer, according to Dr. William L. Wilson of UCLA.

BUILT-IN COOLER

People perspire in cool weather as well as in warm; at night as well as in the day. When the sweat evaporates, it has a cooling effect. An inactive person may give off as much as a quart of perspiration in a day. A very active person may give off five gallons a day.

Human Operator 4-Legged Superman

Copyright 1969 World Book Science Service

Cybernetic and thropomorphic machine systems (CAMS) are coming!

These machines that use a human operator as the controlling mechanism are really quite simple. They simply amplify or enlarge a man's own abilities.

The machine that has been built already weighs 3,000 pounds and is 11 feet high. A four-legged monster, it has no mind of its own. Its "brain" is its human operator.

The operator is strapped into the CAMS device and it works just the way his body does.

His right arm controls the right front leg of the machine; his right leg controls its right rear leg, and so on.

With one foot, the machine can lift a 500-pound load or scatter a stack of 175-pound beams as if they were matchwood. That same foot can be put down on an egg without breaking it.

The ingenious system that enables the mechanical monster to perform these very different tasks is called "force feedback."

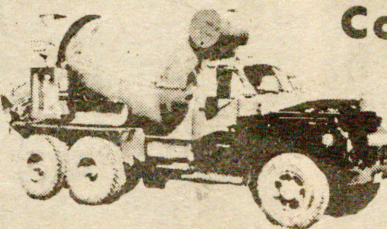

The operator can actually "feel" what he is doing because the machine sends back signals. In other words, if the machine's leg strikes a solid object, the operator feels a proportional force on his own leg.

The Army sponsored the development of the first of these amazing walking machines. Soldiers can use them in places where conventional machines are no help at all.

Connect the dots to see what the first CAMS machine looks like.

Open Letter from the HIRSCHS'

Dear friends,

The Rev. Alvin Johnson of Denver writes, "During two decades in the ministry, I am pleased with the attitude I have found in funeral directors. They are genuinely interested in being helpful . . . these men who are at the same time professional men, technicians, businessmen, counselors, psychologists. I wish to offer my congratulations to these men who do a delicate and difficult job well."

We strive to be worthy of the Reverend's words.

Bright Kitchen Happier Place

SOUTHWEST -- The gal who delights in whipping up summer delicacies to satisfy warm weather appetites will find summer cookery can be doubly pleasant when the kitchen decor is to her liking.

Although today's homemaker spends considerably less time in the kitchen than her grandmother did, the kitchen remains the major home work area for most women.

Making this center of domestic activity decoratively appealing can spell out the difference between the kitchen doldrums and stove-side happiness for most women.

Suggestions include wise placement of framed artwork on kitchen walls. This can turn the trick both decoratively and psychologically. Arrangements of framed art that are viewed can help make light work of all chores.

Many of today's framed pictures are right at home in the kitchen. Still life pictures of apples, cut cheese and half-empty wine bottles add a country air to the most citified kitchen. Prints of colorful masterpieces, when framed and protected by glass from kitchen splatters, make a bright addition to the room's decor.

Pen Pal

Dear Miss Brookfield:

I am a widow in the early 40's and do like to write letters. By any chance would you know of any pen pal clubs I could get in touch with? I would appreciate your help.

E.M., WITTMAN, Md.

Dear E.M.:

There are numerous pen pal clubs but the majority cater to youngsters or students. Two international pen pal clubs, however, do include mature correspondents. They are Letters Abroad, Inc., 209 East 56th St., New York, N.Y. 10022 and the International Friendship League, 40 Mount Vernon St., Boston, Mass. 02108. The first is for pen friends from 15 to 50; the League is for correspondents from seven to 75.

A spokesman at Letters Abroad said they receive more requests for international pen pals from students. "We get few inquiries from European housewives." Also, while there is no fee for this service at present, Letters Abroad plans to start charging one dollar starting in September. With the initial inquiry to any pen pal club, enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope. Give age, occupation and interests.

Pregnant At Fifty

Dear Miss Brookfield:

Recently, when some of the "girls" got together at my house, a question came up. Maybe you can answer it. We are all married women, well over 40. Our question: what is the oldest age at which a woman got pregnant?

K. L., Doylestown, Pa.

Dear K.L.:

According to medical authorities, pregnancy is rare in women over 50. Professor P. J. Huntingford, M.D., a British gynecologist, was recently quoted as saying: "I should hesitate to say, however, that conception cannot occur beyond the age of 52 years. Indeed, I was recently at a discussion at which it was claimed that a lady of 58 had conceived."

If your question was not prompted by idle curiosity but the doubts of "one of the girls," we would suggest a talk with a physician. One of the first signs that the menopause is approaching is usually a change in the pattern of menstrual bleeding. Sometimes the period may come earlier than usual; sometimes later. An entire period may be skipped. Occasionally a woman will skip a few months and then resume. This irregularity can go on for two or three or more years before menstruation ceases entirely.

Unhappy Working Wife

Dear Miss Brookfield:

You seem to get many letters from women who want to return to work so I thought you might like to hear from someone with a different viewpoint. After the children married I spent one happy year running the house. Then my husband had a business set-back and I returned to work "for a while." That was three years ago and I hate it. I'm a secretary. Eight hours a day I take orders from my boss and try to read his moods. (Talk about moody women!) At night I rush home to prepare dinner and look forward to an evening filled with such joys as washing dishes, ironing, cleaning, marketing. By bed time, I am exhausted. As so many women seem so anxious to return to business, can you tell me if there is something wrong with me?

D. Y., Oklahoma City, Okla.

Dear D.Y.:

There's nothing wrong with you. Obviously, you are one of those women who enjoy running a home. If your husband's business set-back hasn't been straightened out, perhaps you might explore the possibilities of buying a dishwasher, sending the clothes to the laundry, etc., before you have a set-back yourself.

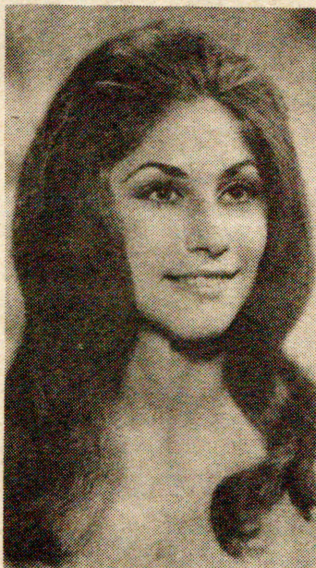

Have you a problem as a mature woman, or with one? For advice and help write to Margaret Brookfield, Graphic Newspapers, 200 Main St., Lemont, Ill. 60439.

Mother May Help Protect Family

SOUTHWEST -- Mothers are the protectors in each family, but how well is your family protected in case of emergency? This is one question that the Cooperative Blood Replacement Plan asks all mothers.

In case of emergency are your family's blood needs taken care of? A blood donation today could protect you tomorrow.

The replacement plan is a not-for-profit public service program acting as intermediary between hospital blood banks and donors who wish to assure themselves and their families of unlimited blood replacement when and if needed.

The plan is available at all area hospitals.

To give blood, one must be an adult in good health, between the ages of 21 and 60. An unmarried minor between the ages of 18 and 21 must have the written permission of their parents or guardian. An individual can be a blood donor only if he has not given blood during the previous ten weeks. A donor may give blood as often as five times in any 12-month period.

A person may not be a donor if he has a history of certain diseases, high blood pressure, jaundice, anemia, malaria, diabetes or syphilis.

In the event that a person cannot give blood, he is encouraged to get someone else to be the donor, or he may pay a $10 benefit fee and stay of operation.

Besides glasses the volunteers also accept precious metal scrap, silverware, antique and costume jewelry. These are melted down and the money is used to supply funds established in 106 hospitals all over the country, Canada and Puerto Rico.

Discarded glasses, broken jewelry, and precious metal scrap may be sent to New Eyes for the Needy, Short Hills, N.J. 07078.

Minis A Fun Thing

JOLIET -- Many people would like to be gardeners, but they live in rooms, apartments and townhouses and think they have no place for a garden.

But, if they have a window-sill, balcony or a doorstep, they have enough space for a minigarden, says George Young, Will County assistant Extension adviser.

Growing vegetables in a minigarden can be fun. The gardener does not have to be familiar with growing plants if he has the patience to follow instructions.

The basic materials needed are containers, synthetic soil and seed Young explains.

Containers can be plastic or clay pots, old pails, plastic buckets, bushel baskets or wooden boxes. The size and number of containers can vary with space available and number of plants grown.

Synthetic soil can be purchased from seed dealers and garden centers or prepared by the gardener. They are prepared from a mixture of vermiculite, peat moss and fertilizer.

For minigardening, soil substitutes have several advantages over soil says Young.

They are free of plant disease organisms and weed seeds, hold moisture and plant nutrients well, and are very light-weight and portable Young explains.

Success in minigardening depends partly on quality of seeds planted. Use this year's seed. Miniature vegetable varieties are best for minigardens.

U.S.D.A. Home and Garden Bulletin No. 163, Mini-gardens for Vegetables, explains in more detail this fruitful pastime. Copies can be obtained by calling the Will County Cooperative Extension Service, 727-1173, Joliet.

gain the same protection as the person who donates blood.

The blood donation is much preferred to the benefit fee, for the entire purpose of the plan is to encourage people to be blood donors.

For membership information write or call offices of the Cooperative Blood Replacement Plan, located at 2000 North Lincoln Park West, Chicago, Ill. 60614, phone, 477-7500.

M. Sgt. Geo. Cofer writes from Southeast Asia: "I had the worst case of foot odor a person could have -- tried all the remedies I could find. Then I got T-4-L and the F.O. was gone in two days."

I gave him the last of my T-4-L and even helped him apply it. In 3 days his foot was better and in one week all clear. He was thrilled and now wears black socks." The figures aren't all in yet on the annual July 4 Festival sponsored by the Mokena Lions Club, according to Kenneth Heim, secretary. It was believed that the profits will be less than last year because of weather conditions, however.

The Lions depend upon the festival as the major source of funds to operate charitable and civic endeavors. Rain and the threat of rain cut attendance Saturday and Sunday.

The Mokena Woman's Club float was judged as best in the parade. Amway Products won first place in the float category and Wilbur's Grocery was second. The Dan Dee Girls took first in the marching units and

Mokena

William Martin Post VFW Color Guard was second.

The Mike Plachy family won first in the pets division of the kiddy parade and the entries of Judy Kosiara, and Jean and Danny Werfelman were second. Lori Ann Hertzog was first in the bikes and Jackie and Ronald Hurley, second. First in the wagon and buggy section was Joann and Janet Koerner and Linda Bormet; second were Cam, John and Jimmy Mance and Elaine Schultz.

Harold Cooper, of Cooper-Hostert, turned the keys of the Mustang over to James Difanis, of Oak Forest.

UARA Midget Driver Dies In Car Crash

SOUTHWEST -- Paul Rademacher, a top UARA midget driver, was killed in a one car crash on the 17th lap of the feature at the Waukegan Speedway on July 4.

Paul's car, coming out of the straightaway, hit the wall head on, then flipped on top of the metal guard rail, reported Sandy Carter. He died at the hospital.

Bill Kollman won the feature after the re-start, with Phil Palombo second, and Ron Clemens, third. Kollman also had fast time for the night and won the fourth heat.

Tom Steiner of Orland Park, won the trophy dash. Other heat wins went to Ron Foster of Joliet, Jim Hill of Des Plaines, and Tom Ward of Lafayette. Charlie Cook of Mokena took the semi.

Saturday night, the UARA midgets ran their weekly show at the Mazon Speed

Park District Olympics Week

LOCKPORT -- Olympic week was held July 7 to 11 at the Lockport Park District playgrounds. Topic was history and events, cultural values and a chance to know others through sports.

Special event was the playground olympics held July 10 at the Lockport West High School athletic field.

Tournaments included jacks and marbles, pick-up-sticks and hopscotch.

Bowl. Before the race a moment of silence was held in honor of Rademacher, who had driven with UARA for six years.

Jim Gates of Plano, won his third straight feature on the high banked oval. Gates also had fast time, came in third in the trophy dash, and placed second in the second heat. Gates' car was out for the night with a leak in the gas tank. It was his first time to drive Corson's Chevy powered number 52.

Bill Krueger of Lombard won the trophy dash, with the heat wins going to Ken DeBeau of Justice, Newt White and Ron Clemens of Lockport.

Gates will be back on Saturday evening trying for his fourth feature win. It looks like Gates has found the secret formula for getting around first.

Action gets underway Saturday evening at the Mazon Speed Bowl with the time trials at 7 p.m., and the first race at 8:15 p.m. The track is located nine miles south of Morris on Rt. 47 in Mazon.

Compete In 'Scoop' Classic

SOUTHWEST -- Santa Fe Speedway's third annual "Hot Scoop" Classic, to be held on July 20, appears to have drawn the largest field in its history. Already 12 entries are in and at least 20 drivers are expected for the Santa Fe exclusive.

The "Hot Scoop" Classic is an eight-lap event for auto-racing-minded radio, television and newspaper personalities. Each entry is an official representative of a Chicagoland journalism media; each scribe will compete in regulation sportsman autos during the intermission on the regular 10-event Sunday racing program.

An incomplete "Hot Scoop" entry list shows the following entrants: Pat Callahan, director of photography for Graphic Newspapers, and Don Helenhouse, assistant general manager of Tri-County Publishing Company, Graphic Newspapers; Dave Anderson, Lerner Home Newspapers; Steve Benford, "Motorsports International" channel 26; David Fall, Hammond Times; Ray Gray, Chicago Today; Bud Hines, Hinsdale Doings; Rip Hodson, DuPage County Times; Denny Johnson, Enterprise Publications; Chuck Kanney, Citizens Newspapers; Terry Kocka, Life Newspapers; and Jerry Wozniak of Glen Ellyn News.

program will begin at 8:30 p.m.; Sunday's card, which features another spectator race and the annual "Hot Scoop" Classic for journalists, starts at 8 p.m. Time trials precede the opening event by one hour.

Contending sportsman quartet include present point leaders Larry Robb of LaGrange, and Lee Byers of Chicago. Robb, who has headed the sportsman heap for nearly the entire season, was passed by Byers last week; Robb, however, caught the Chicagoan this past weekend and the two are in a dead heat for first place.

Hottest driver on the clay action oval at present is Don Robinson of Chicago. Bill Bottoms, last year's "rookie of the year" from Justice, has caught fire and is within striking distance of the number one position.

Other sportsman drivers who are still in contention include Ed Fehrman of LaGrange Park, Bobby Mann from LaGrange, Jerry Kling of Lemont, Jim Kubik of Lyons, and Ron Fisher of Westmont.

Kelvin Grove, last year's olympic champs, practiced for the upcoming olympics. In the 75 yard dash, winners were Matt Cimo, six to eight; Darren McCarthy, nine to 11; and Dennis McCarthy, 12 to 14.

Lidice held a scavenger and treasure hunt with winners treated to root beers. A soap carving contest proved a success at the Richland playground. A 50 yard dash tourney was also held with winners Leann Schneider, six to eight; and Christine Schneider, nine to 11.

Reschedule Golf Event

WILL COUNTY -- Heavy rains July 6 and threatening skies July 7 discouraged all but 16 stalwart Farm Bureau golfers from Will and DuPage Counties from their scheduled golf meet July 7.

Chairman Gene Malone postponed the event because of the scant turn out. It has been rescheduled for Monday, July 21, at Woodridge Golf Course, Lisle.

All golfers who wish to play in this event are asked to be at Woodridge by the 10 a.m. tee-off time July 21.

Golfers from each county will be trying to qualify to represent their county in the district competition of the Illinois Sport Festival golf event July 28 at Belvidere.

Classes in which counties may enter are husband-wife, mixed-double, men's regular member, men's associate member, senior men 50 - 60, senior men 61 and over, and male dependent member.

Anyone wishing to enter, or seeking information on the golf meet, should contact the Will County Farm Bureau at 727-4811.

All Farm Bureau members and their families are eligible to participate in the outing July 21, Malone said. He urged participation regardless of whether the golfer expects to win a place on the team going to district.

Santa Fe's Sportsman Division Nears Climax

SOUTHWEST -- Santa Fe Speedway's dog-eat-dog battle in the sportsman division reaches a high point this weekend as two pilots share the top spot and two others are a single feature win behind.

The top foursome will compete in a tension-filled 25-lap main event on July 19 and again on July 20. Saturday's program will begin at 8:30 p.m.; Sunday's card, which features another spectator race and the annual "Hot Scoop" Classic for journalists, starts at 8 p.m. Time trials precede the opening event by one hour.

Contending sportsman quartet include present point leaders Larry Robb of LaGrange, and Lee Byers of Chicago. Robb, who has headed the sportsman heap for nearly the entire season, was passed by Byers last week; Robb, however, caught the Chicagoan this past weekend and the two are in a dead heat for first place.

Other sportsman drivers who are still in contention include Ed Fehrman of LaGrange Park, Bobby Mann from LaGrange, Jerry Kling of Lemont, Jim Kubik of Lyons, and Ron Fisher of Westmont.

Late model pilots, led by the high-riding trio of Don Waldvogel of Lockport, Bob Kelly of Wheaton, and Dick Nelson of Chicago, compete in 25-lappers this Saturday and Sunday evening.

Santa Fe, Chicagoland's busiest racing oval, presents top-speed stock car races each weekend. Motorcycles sponsored by the Maywood Mustangs Motorcycle Club take over every Wednesday evening; AMA-sanctioned cycle races are another Santa Fe Speedway exclusive.

Santa Fe Speedway is located at 91st and Wolf Rd.

In the sportsman division, Jerry Kling ranks 9th with a total of 42 points; Al Madden of Lemont, ranks 17th with 18 points; and Dave Lovelace of Lemont, is number 18 with 13 points.

Tourney Is Close

Keep It Beautiful

If America hired people for the job, it would take the largest sort of army to keep our country free of litter.

But there's no need to hire anyone. It's a job we can do for ourselves. All of us. Every family that spreads a picnic lunch. Every boatman who cruises the lakes and waterways. Every motorist who uses our roads and highways.

It is the pleasure of the U. S. Brewers Association each year to give its fullest support to the Keep America Beautiful Campaign. Remember: Every Litter Bit Hurts. This is our land. Let's treat it right.

Lane -- would carry traffic only one way. Each parent will receive a detailed diagram of new traffic regulations for Willowcrest Lane prior to the opening of school.

The two school principals, Coleman Rogers and Gene Morrall made their annual reports to the board. The annual report on the school library shows that it now has 4,866 different books and that the circulation the past year was 13,049 books. The report added that the average Mokena student read nearly two books a month.

The special education co-operative board for the Lincoln-Way area has approved an insurance plan for employees for the coming school year and is working on a transportation program.

Parents are reminded by school authorities that they can pay book fees anytime this summer at the Dist. 159 office in the Carpenter Street school. The office is open Monday thru Friday from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Book rental for grades 1 through 8 is $12, and fee for kindergarten pupils is $8, which includes the cost of milk.

Pupils new in the district should register as early as possible, Ennis said, and reminds residents to suggest to new neighbors that they register their children at the school office.

Radio Trouble

1969, turned off the electricity serving the radio antenna in question. We do not wish to embarrass, nor do we seek to inconvenience the Will County Sheriff's Office. But our requests have been neglected and our demands have been ignored.

"On Tuesday, July 22, 1969, we will again turn off the electricity servicing the county's radio antenna. We will not voluntarily restore the service. Once again we apologize for the position we have been forced to take. Nevertheless, should any private ham radio operator violate the rights of the citizens of our community, we would be compelled to take all actions necessary to protect our citizens. The sheriff is the biggest ham operator in our county. We cannot make an exception in this case. We certainly hope someone will take the necessary steps to remedy this situation. Yours very truly, etc."

traffic. Then there are the drivers, who, when mailing letters in the outdoor mail box, cut across oncoming traffic and pull up on the wrong side of the street, facing the wrong way, to drop their letters in the box. This driver then cuts across the traffic again to go on his merry way. This too is not important, it's only your life or that of a friend that is in danger of being cut short.

I have been told that I live in a residential neighborhood. There is a factory across the street and a truck route running up and down Pacific St. and Maple St. The fact that you are waken up every time a truck turns the corner going east on Pacific and guns the motor to go up the little incline is ok... no one told you about the trucks before you bought the house, to say nothing about the dust from the traffic.

Three years ago I was told that the trucks would be gone in a year, instead they get bigger and noisier as time goes by. But, then I am proud that I live in a residential neighborhood.

By the way, do the dogs run loose in the streets? Neighbors love other dogs doing their duty in their yards and then running home to rest. Maybe on the way scare or bite little children at play. But this too is not important, the only important thing is to be able to see over your neighbor's fence.

This letter is not meant to criticize the police department, for they do not make the laws, they only try to enforce them. I think they do a good job. There are a lot less dogs running the streets now, thanks to the chief of police.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Marie Guth

Recluse Is Threat In Area Now

The poisonous, death-dealing black recluse spider can be controlled by cleanliness and good housekeeping. The spider is becoming more common in northern Illinois, according to the Illinois Natural History Survey.

The recluse is shy, but its bite can be fatal. Its most distinguishing feature is a dark brown or black violin shaped mark beginning at the head and extending part way down the back. Yellowish to brown, it has an oval body, generally 3/8 to one-half inch long and a quarter-inch wide. Like all spiders, it has four pairs of legs covered with short, fine hairs.

Recluse spiders like dark attics, closets, bathrooms, storerooms and other seldom disturbed spots. They make irregular webs in cracks and small openings. Often they are found hiding in clothing and beds where most bites occur. Normally they bite only if threatened or provoked.

Dear Friends:

We frequently speak to you about goals in our efforts to promote thrift and savings because there is something appealing about saving for a specific purpose.

But the goals we talk about for ourselves as a savings association are somewhat less fixed and more illusory. There can be no real finality about them, for we talk in terms of growing in service to you, or growing in strength and solidarity as a goal. As an example, our brand-new parking deck which provides all-weather parking for 180 cars is today the ultimate in parking convenience. But it would be inconceivable for us to stop at this or any other point and tell ourselves that we have finally achieved the optimum in service, or the ultimate in strength and solidarity and can progress no farther. And so it is, now at half-year, and throughout the rest of this year and all the years that follow, our goal, if we can call it that, is to continue to advance in securing for you all the things that is both our obligation and our good fortune to provide.

Sincerely,

JOHN B. FIGEL
